Our pets are more than just animals. They are our companions, our confidants, and our family members. They bring us joy, laughter, and unconditional love. In Animal Blessings, you will find prayers and poems that celebrate the special bond between humans and animals. This beautiful book is filled with heartwarming stories, inspiring quotes, and stunning photography that will touch the hearts of all animal lovers.

Prayers for Pets

The prayers in Animal Blessings are written by people from all walks of life who have experienced the love and companionship of animals. These prayers are a way to express our gratitude for our pets, to ask for their protection and guidance, and to comfort us when they are gone.

Here is a sample prayer from the book:

“ Dear God, Thank you for the gift of my pet. They bring me so much joy and love. Please watch over them and keep them safe. Help me to be a good pet parent and to give them the best possible life. In your name, I pray. Amen. ”

Poems for Pets

The poems in Animal Blessings are written by some of the world's most beloved poets, including William Blake, Emily Dickinson, and Robert Frost. These poems capture the beauty, wonder, and joy of animals. They remind us of the important role that animals play in our lives.

Here is a sample poem from the book:

“ The world is too much with us; late and soon, Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers;-- Little we see in Nature that is ours; We have given our hearts away, a sordid boon! This Sea that bares her bosom to the moon; The winds that will be howling at all hours, And are upgathered now like sleeping flowers; For this, for everything, we are out of tune; It moves us not. —Great God! I'd rather be A Pagan suckled in a creed outworn; So might I, standing on this pleasant lea, Have glimpses that would make me less forlorn; Have sight of Proteus rising from the sea; Or hear old Triton blow his wreathèd horn. ”
