

Blocking The Left Assault On Life, Marriage, And Gender

The Left is waging an all-out assault on life, marriage, and gender. Their goal is to redefine these foundational institutions in a way that undermines their traditional meaning and significance. But we can't let them succeed. We need to stand up and fight for the values that have made our country great.

The Assault on Life

The Left has long been hostile to the unborn child. They view abortion as a woman's right, and they have fought to make it legal and accessible. In recent years, they have even pushed for late-term abortions, which are often performed when the baby is viable outside the womb.

This assault on life is morally repugnant. Every human being, no matter how small or helpless, deserves the right to life. We need to defend the unborn child and work to create a culture of life in our country.

The Assault on Marriage

The Left is also attacking marriage. They claim that marriage is a social construct that can be redefined to include same-sex couples. They have succeeded in legalizing same-sex marriage in many states, and they are now pushing for it to be recognized as a federal right.

This assault on marriage is a threat to our society. Marriage is a unique and special institution that has been recognized by every major culture throughout history. It is the foundation of the family, and it is essential for the well-being of children.

The Assault on Gender

The Left is also attacking gender. They claim that gender is a social construct that can be changed at will. They have encouraged people to identify as transgender, and they have pushed for laws that would allow people to change their legal gender without any medical intervention.

This assault on gender is a threat to our sanity. Gender is a biological reality that cannot be changed. It is essential for our physical and mental health, and it is the basis for our social interactions.

What We Can Do

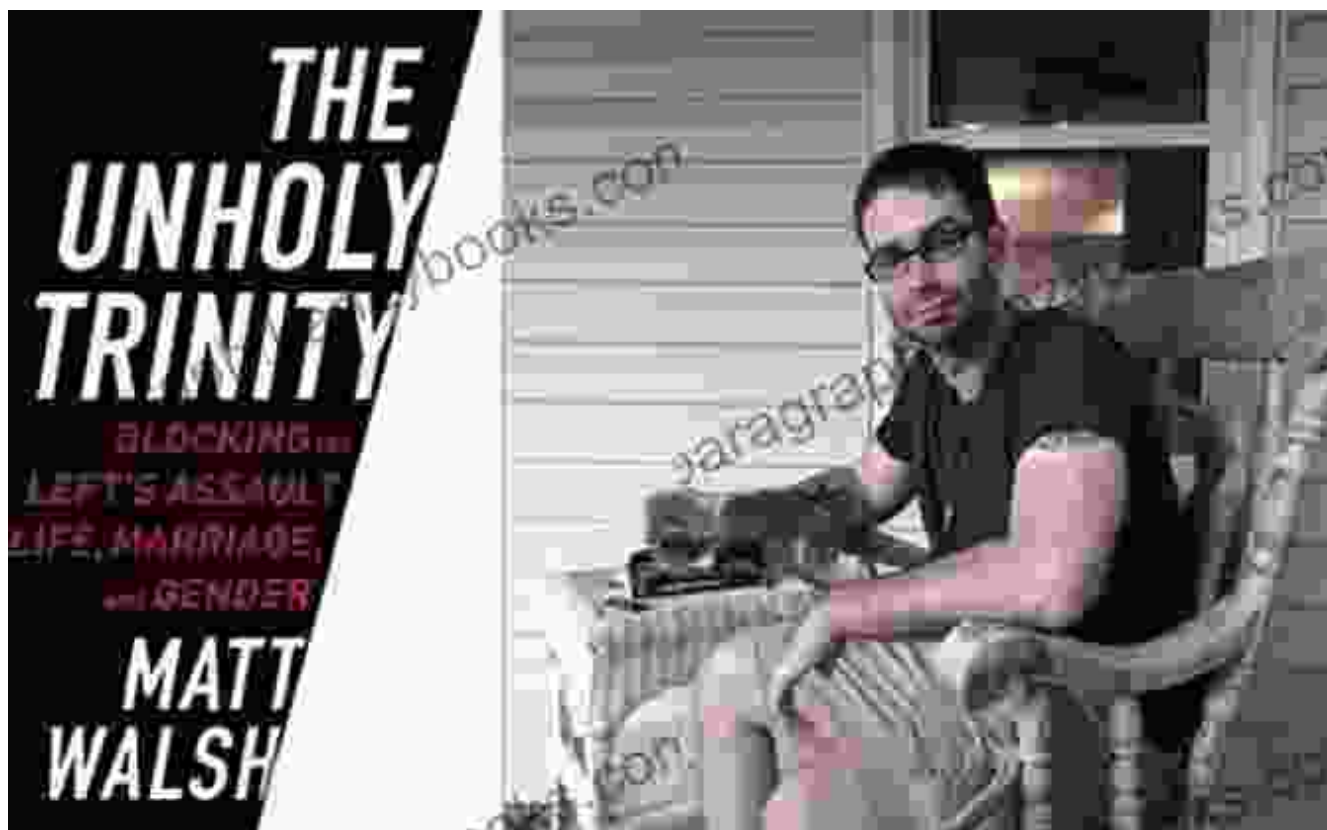

We can't let the Left succeed in their assault on life, marriage, and gender. We need to stand up and fight for the values that have made our country great.

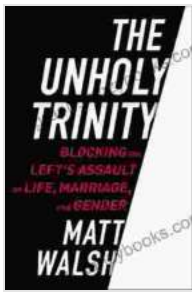

Here are some things we can do:

- Vote for candidates who support life, marriage, and gender.
- Support organizations that are fighting for these values.
- Pray for our country and for the protection of our values.
- Educate our children about the importance of these values.

Together, we can block the Left's assault on life, marriage, and gender. We can defend our values and ensure that our country remains a beacon of hope and freedom for generations to come.
