Medal With Mouse Ears is an inspiring true story of courage and determination. It is a story of a young girl named Katie who was born with cerebral palsy. Despite her challenges, Katie never gave up on her dreams of becoming a competitive swimmer. Through hard work and dedication, Katie eventually won a gold medal at the Special Olympics World Games.

Katie's story is an inspiration to everyone who has ever faced adversity. It shows that anything is possible if you are willing to work hard and never give up on your dreams. Medal With Mouse Ears is a must-read for anyone who is looking for motivation and inspiration.

About the Author

Katie's story is told by her mother, Jean. Jean is a writer and speaker who has dedicated her life to helping others. She is the founder of the Katie Beckett Foundation, which provides support to families of children with disabilities.
