Excerpt

From Chapter One:

The first time Adele disappeared, she was three years old. She had wandered away from her parents while they were picnicking in the park. They searched for her for hours, but she was nowhere to be found. Finally, just when they were about to call the police, she reappeared, as if from nowhere. She was unharmed, but she wouldn't say where she had been or what she had done.

The second time Adele disappeared, she was seventeen years old. She had gone out for a walk in the woods near her home and never came back. Her parents searched for her for days, but there was no sign of her. It was as if she had vanished into thin air.

Adele's disappearance left a profound void in her family's lives. Her parents were devastated, and her sister, Giulia, became obsessed with finding out what had happened to her.

"I have to find her," Giulia said. "I have to know what happened to her."

Giulia's search for Adele became a catalyst for the exploration of loss, grief, and the power of art. She found solace in painting and writing, and her work expressed the raw emotions of those who have lost a loved one.

"La Sparizione" is a mesmerizing and unforgettable novel that will stay with you long after you finish reading it. Volpi has crafted a masterpiece of literary fiction that is both heartbreaking and hopeful, a testament to the enduring power of love and art.
