What Happened

The Holocaust was the systematic murder of six million Jews by the Nazis during World War II. The Nazis also killed millions of other people, including Roma, homosexuals, and political dissidents. The Holocaust was carried out by the Nazis in a variety of ways, including mass shootings, gas chambers, and medical experiments.

Why It Happened

The Holocaust was not simply a product of Nazi hatred of Jews. It was the culmination of centuries of anti-Semitism and racism. The Nazis used the Holocaust to further their own political goals, including the creation of a pure Aryan race and the expansion of German territory.

Who Was Involved

The Holocaust was carried out by the Nazis, but many other people were involved, including civilians, collaborators, and bystanders. Some people actively participated in the Holocaust, while others simply looked the other way. The Holocaust is a reminder of the dangers of hatred and prejudice, and the importance of speaking out against injustice.

The Legacy of the Holocaust

The Holocaust has had a profound impact on the world. It has led to the creation of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. It has also led to a greater awareness of the dangers of hatred and prejudice. The Holocaust is a reminder of the importance of human rights and the need to fight against all forms of discrimination.
